
Software update

A new software update for Ti5, Ti7 and Ti10 displays is available.

Hexagon is constantly working on new features for their equipment and making them available to the market.

Staying up to date with the latest software version ensures optimal performance and security, enhancing productivity and safeguarding against potential vulnerabilities. Embrace the latest updates to stay ahead.

We strongly recommend upgrading to get the best performance from our solutions.

Click here to download the PDF guide for software update.

Click here to access the video tutorial on software updates.

Frequently Asked Questions, release notes, formatting, and backup procedure

Click here to find out how to identify the display version / differences between Ti5 and Ti5+.

Click here to access our Frequently Asked Questions.

Click here to find the latest version and its release note.

You can backup the settings before formatting, following this procedure.

For more information, consult the user manual or contact our support team.

🕒 Revision #12

★ Created Wed, Nov 16, 2022 7:24 PM by Daniel Richartz

✎ Updated Thu, Apr 18, 2024 1:50 PM by FAGUNDES Hugo